True Beacon

Single Line Lock-Up

The True Beacon logo employs a Golden beam, symbolising sophistication and boldness. The change in beam colour also symbolises our maturity and growth as a brand.

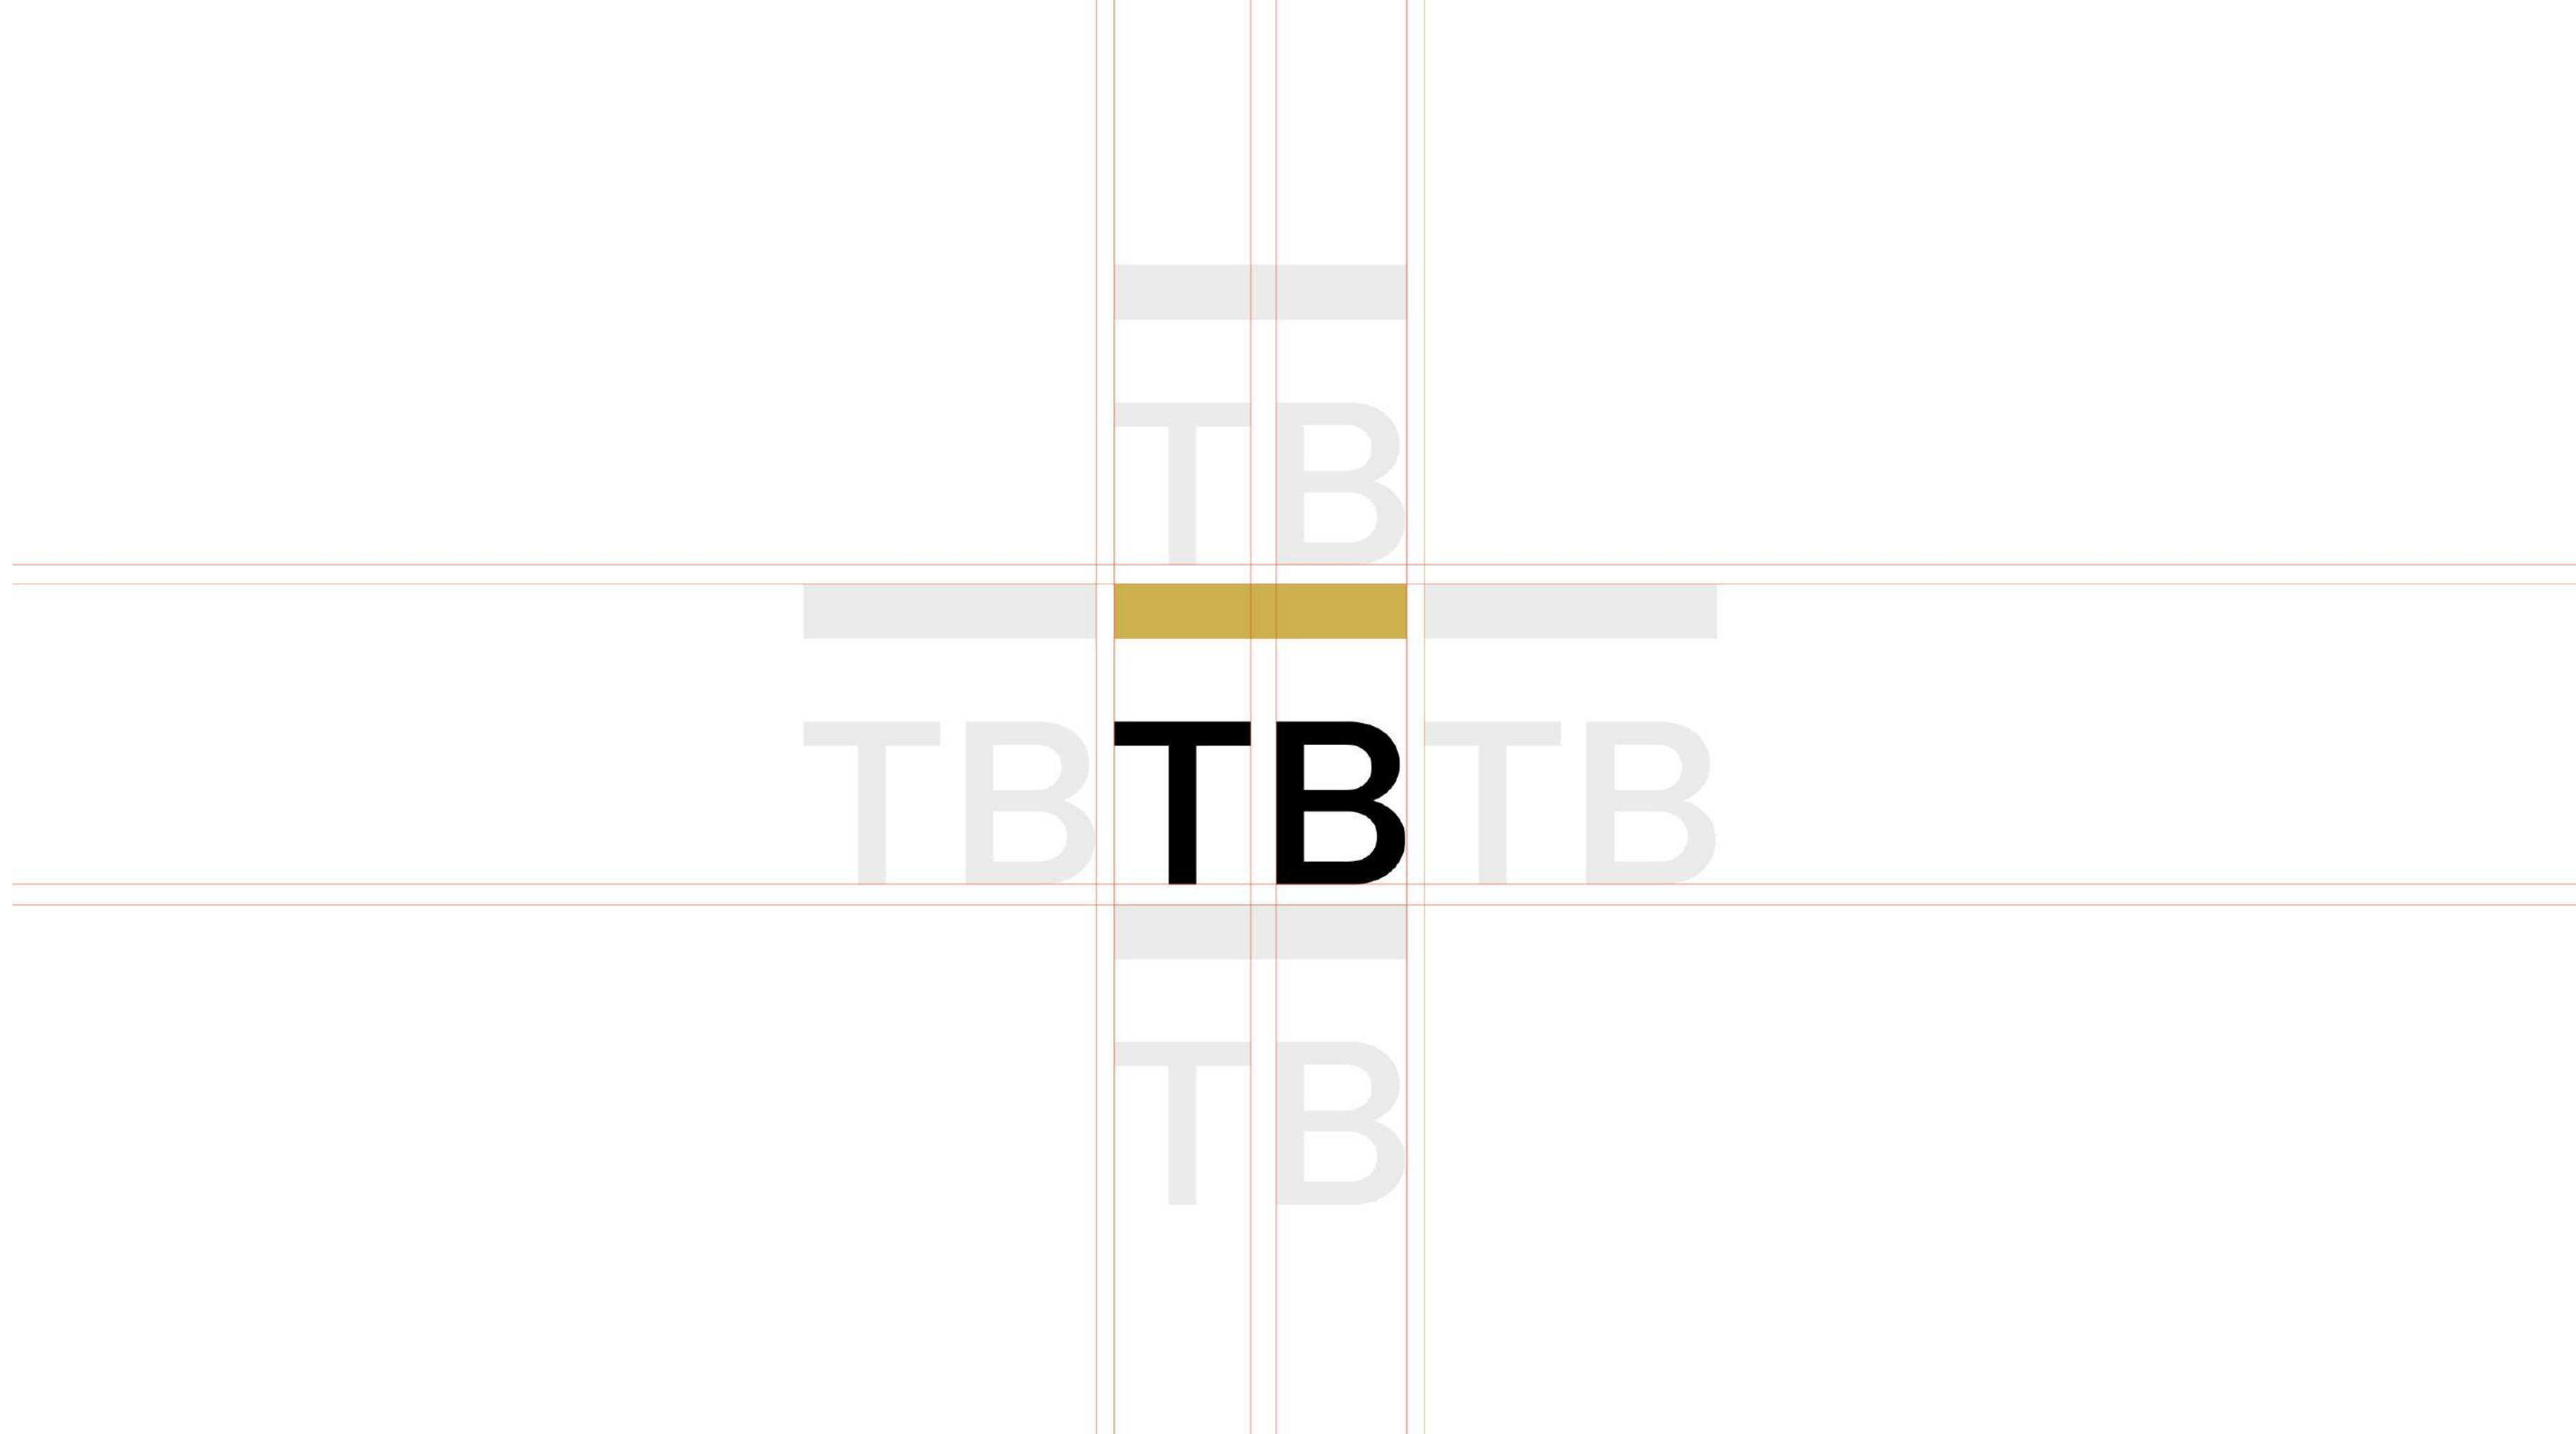

Complementing this, the use of sleek black Red Hat Font conveys our commitment to a clear and straightforward approach.

Clearspace

Clear space around the logo is equal to the cap height of the yellow beam height. Always ensure there is sufficient clear space around the logo.

BG Color

The logo should be white on darker backgrounds and black on lighter backgrounds

The image shows two logo alignment examples. The top example features the True Beacon logo (a gold bar above the text 'True Beacon') and the ZERODHA logo (a blue square icon followed by the text 'ZERODHA'). They are aligned using a grid of red lines. A vertical red line passes through the 'B' of 'True Beacon' and the icon of 'ZERODHA'. A horizontal red line passes through the top of the 'B' and the top of the 'ZERODHA' text. A gold bar is positioned above the 'True Beacon' text, and a blue square icon is positioned above the 'ZERODHA' text. The text 'True Beacon' is in black, and 'ZERODHA' is in blue. The background is white.

True Beacon TB ZERODHA

Partnership

Aligning partnership logos should follow clear space rules. The separating line between logos can be created using the "TB" of the reserve logo. Partnership logos font height should extend to the red lines which line up to the top of the "TB".
